

REMARKS

Claims 1-13, 16-36 and 40-43 were pending in the Application. Claims 1-13, 16-22, 24-36 and 40-43 are cancelled without prejudice or disclaimer. Claims 44 and 45 were added. Hence, claims 23 and 44-45 are pending in the Application.

Applicants thank Examiner Campbell for discussing this case with Applicants' attorney, Bobby Voigt, as discussed in further detail below.

Applicants cancelled claims 1-13, 16-22, 24-36 and 40-43 only to expedite the issuance of claims 23 and 44-45 and are not in response to Examiner's cited art. Applicants are not conceding in this application that cancelled claims 1-13, 16-22, 24-36 and 40-43 are not patentable over the art cited by the Examiner, as the present claim amendments and cancellations are only for facilitating the expeditious prosecution of the subject matter (claims 23 and 44-45) indicated by the Examiner as being allowable (see below). Applicants respectfully reserve the right to pursue these and other claims in one or more continuation patent applications.

The Examiner has indicated that claim 23 is allowable if the rejections under 35 U.S.C. §101 are overcome. On January 19, 2010, Examiner Campbell indicated to Applicants' attorney, Bobby Voigt, that by removing the phrase "but is not limited to" in the paragraph beginning at page 28, line 13 of Applicants' Specification, the rejections under 35 U.S.C. §101 would be overcome. As indicated above, Applicants amended the Specification accordingly.

Furthermore, as indicated above, Applicants added claims 44 and 45, method and system claims, respectively, which correspond to the limitations of allowed claim 23. On February 16, 2010, Examiner Campbell indicated to Applicants' attorney, Bobby Voigt, that these claims would also be allowed.

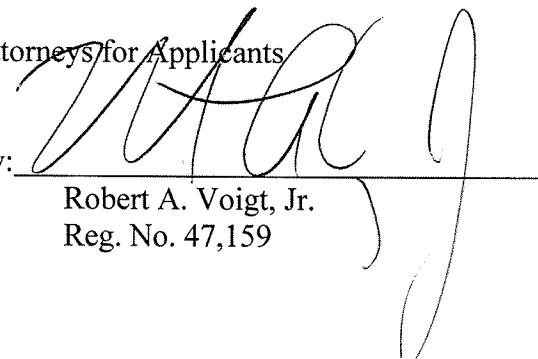

As a result of the foregoing, claims 23 and 44-45 are allowable. Applicants respectfully request an allowance of said claims.

Applicants respectfully request that the Examiner call Applicants' attorney at the below listed number if the Examiner believes that such a discussion would be helpful in resolving any remaining issues.

Respectfully submitted,

WINSTEAD P.C.
